

Most Important Points Of 30th December in History

➤ 1906 – Muslim League established in Dhaka.

The All India Muslim League was established on 30 December 1906 in a conference under the control of Nawab Salim Ullah Khan of Dhaka. The League was formed in 1907 in Karachi, Pakistan. Its first session was held in Karachi in 1907. The first session of the All India Muslim League was presided over by Aga Khan.

➤ 1919 – First female student admitted to the bar in London.

On Christmas Eve 1919, the day after the Act was passed, Helena Normanton became the first woman in England and Wales to be admitted as a student member to any of the four Inns of Court. Normanton, who attracted considerable press attention as the 'first' female barrister, had a turbulent relationship with the Bar Council.

➤ 1922 – Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, and Transcaucasia join together to form the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

Founded in 1922 as a union of Russia, Belarus, Ukraine, and Transcaucasia (consisting of Georgia, Azerbaijan, and Armenia), the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR) eventually grew to 15 republics – and became a worldwide superpower. Nearly 130 ethnic groups lived in this vast country, which spanned 11 time zones.

The Soviet Union, officially the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, was a socialist state in Eurasia that existed from 1922 to 1991. It was nominally a supranational union of national republics, but its government and economy were highly centralized in a state that was unitary in most respects.

Most Important Points Of 30th December in History

- 1943 - Freedom fighter Subhash Chandra Bose hoisted the flag of India's independence in Port Blair.

Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose hoisted the national tricolor flag for the first time in Port Blair on December 30, 1943. On this day the island was declared the first Indian territory to be free from British rule. The Government of India celebrates 30 December as the anniversary of the hoisting of the national tricolor.

Port Blair was named in 1789 in honor of Archibald Blair of the East India Company. Which has now been changed to Sri Vijaya Puram. Archibald Blair was a lieutenant in the Bombay Marine.

- 1975 – The constitution came into effect in the African country of Madagascar.

In 1975, Lieutenant-Commander Didier Ratsiraka seized power from the provisional president and established a socialist government, nationalizing the economy and severing all ties with France.

Under the Ratsiraka administration, a new constitution was adopted in Madagascar in December 1975.

